

Glen McCluskey: 2011-12 LegalCORPS Volunteer of the Year

Glen McCluskey – the 2011-12 LegalCORPS Volunteer of the Year – was instrumental in creating the LegalCORPS Nonprofit Legal Needs Assessment Program. That free service provides “checkups” using LegalCORPS-developed checklists and other materials to provide guidance to Minnesota nonprofits on how to ensure they operate on sound legal footing. He continues to be a prolific volunteer for assisting nonprofit organizations pro bono through LegalCORPS.

As a volunteer, McCluskey pulled together all the necessary elements for the assessment program. He drafted the checklists, forms and procedures. He prepared and conducted the initial training sessions for attorneys who participate in the program – and reprised that effort in April 2012 by leading a three-hour continuing legal education seminar on assessing nonprofits’ legal needs.

He has provided assessments for nonprofit organizations in the program more than any other LegalCORPS volunteer by a significant margin.

McCluskey also generously shares his time and considerable business law experience through LegalCORPS in both brief-advice and full-representation settings. He also supervises volunteer law students in projects involving governance policies for LegalCORPS.

He is a graduate cum laude of William Mitchell College of Law. He operates Business Launch & Legal Services, LLC.

McCluskey served as president of the Union Park District Council in St. Paul for three years and is still active on its board of directors. He was instrumental in creating Union Park by working to merge three existing community councils in St. Paul’s District 13.

His undergraduate degree is in Journalism, from the University of Minnesota, Minneapolis. In addition, he obtained an MBA from Hamline University in St. Paul in 2009. He is licensed to practice in Minnesota and Wisconsin and in the Minnesota District of the Federal Court.

He was Senior Counsel at Wells Fargo Bank in Minneapolis working in the Deposits Group. He also worked on contract to MoneyGram International in its Procurement Group and with Wolters Kluwer Financial to create legal-compliance webinars on newly enacted federal rules and legislation.

McCluskey is a former radio news director at nonprofit KFAI-FM in Minneapolis, and also served for four years as its board president. He is past chair of the Hennepin County Bar Association’s Creditor-Debtor Section and served on the HCBA’s Finance Committee.

He reports that he is a private pilot and also enjoys playing tennis until the snow becomes too deep to find the ball.

Glen McCluskey